

Worship at Holy Trinity

Grounded in the ELCA's Evangelical Lutheran Worship, our services honor the church's great heritage of music and liturgy while embracing the diversity of today's world. Be a worship leader, reader, usher, greeter, communion server, or assisting minister. Find your place here!

Nancy Raabe began her service to Holy Trinity in January, 2018. She is a graduate of Trinity Lutheran and Wartburg Theological Seminaries.

In the Community

Second Harvest Foodbank

Mission: To end hunger in southwestern Wisconsin through community partnerships.

The Second Harvest Food Bank is held in the fellowship hall on the last Friday of every month and provides much-needed food to area families. Open and available to all. Call us to volunteer!

Marshall/Waterloo Food Pantry

The Marshall/Waterloo food pantry is an emergency facility available for short-term food assistance on a monthly basis.

Donations may be dropped off at the Pantry during the hours it is open, at any Marshall or Waterloo church, or at one of the many local businesses that have drop-off barrels. Todd Schultz is the new Food Pantry Coordinator.
